For students completing their high school coursework in an academic system that does not use US grading scales, the Office of Undergraduate Admissions will evaluate records within the context of the local grading system. To meet your conditions of admission (such as maintaining a 3.0 GPA for every term in senior year and earning no grade lower than a C for any individual courses), please ensure that your academic performance in your last year of high school is consistent with (or better than) prior years. In the case of an unexpectedly low grade in your last year of high school, please submit an Undergraduate Update Form available through MAP@Berkeley so that our International Specialists may review your individual situation.

- How to Submit Official High School Transcripts
 - If your high school is unable to access any of the 3rd party services listed on the document submission webpage, you can have your school counselor or school official email your transcripts using their school-affiliated email address directly to busops@berkeley.edu. However, official exams still need to come directly from the appropriate exam agency (see below).
 - For students completing high school in countries where the first year of high school (equivalent to 9th grade) is housed within the middle school, please also submit the middle school transcript in the manner above.

- For students outside of the U.S. who RECEIVE ONLY ONE (1) OFFICIAL COPY of any transcript, academic record book, board exam results or other required documents: please secure a certified copy from your school (with a certified English translation if not in English). A school-certified copy must include the school seal and an original signature, and be sealed in a school envelope with the school stamp on the envelope flap. Notarized copies will not be accepted. DO NOT mail the original document(s) in this situation.
- How to Show Proof of High School Graduation
 - For American/international schools, high school transcripts must include the date of graduation. If your school is unable to print this date on the transcript, please also submit a high school diploma or graduation certificate with this date listed from your high school.
- How to Show Proof of High School Graduation (Continued)
 - For benchmark curricula, the exam date of the high school completion exam (Standard XII, A-Levels, etc) will be used as the date of graduation.
 - For countries that utilize a graduation certificate or other graduation document separate from the transcript, this documentation must also be provided in the same manner as the official high school transcript.

Please ensure that predicted results are submitted in the interim to hold your admission and these will be used as a placeholder to finalize the admission while awaiting your official results. - AP Exam Scores
 - Submit directly through College Board.
 - University Transcripts
 - If no credit/grade was awarded and we are requesting a university transcript, please submit a certificate of completion and/or documentation demonstrating that no credit/grade was awarded.
 - For university courses taken for credit, we must receive the transcript directly from the university. We cannot accept these results from the high school transcript alone and need the official transcript to award university credit. Please visit the document submission webpage for further instructions on how the university can submit this transcript.
 - International Baccalaureate
 - Submit official scores directly from IBO.
 - School counselors may send a copy of your IB results along with your transcripts; however, we do not consider IB scores sent by counselors to be official and cannot award university credit unless the scores come directly from IBO.
