DISCOVER OPPORTUNITIES YOU NEVER IMAGINED

At Berkeley, we challenge the status quo and make discoveries that reshape the future. Our students develop their own voices and stand up for what they believe. They find community in a place where diversity of all kinds is celebrated, nurtured, and valued.

For more than 150 years, students have been coming to Berkeley to stand up, stand out, and make this place their own. Whether you're a biologist or a poet, an entrepreneur or a dancer, here you'll find a world of opportunities to help you grow and transform.

What will you discover at Berkeley?

PERFORM CUTTING-EDGE RESEARCH THAT RESHAPES THE FUTURE

Work directly with renowned faculty through the Undergraduate Research Apprenticeship Program, initiate your own research project, or join dozens of programs across campus.

FIND ACADEMIC SUPPORT TO HELP YOU THRIVE

Tutoring, workshops, study groups, and more are available in the residence halls and through dozens of programs on campus and online. Find specialized resources such as the Educational Opportunity Program (EOP) for first-generation, low-income, and underrepresented students, and the Disabled Students' Program.

STUDY IN ACCLAIMED, DISTINCTIVE MAJOR AND MINOR PROGRAMS

From the arts and humanities to cutting-edge new majors like data science and sustainable environmental design, Berkeley offers an incredible breadth of programs with world-leading faculty.

UNIQUE EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCES

Berkeley Connect: Matches you with a graduate student mentor and connects you with professors, alumni, and students sharing similar interests.

DeCal: Classes led and facilitated by students. More than 150 are offered each semester, from Cancer 101 to Adulting to UC Marvel Cinematic Universe.

Study Abroad: 1,800 students travel with over 100 programs in 40 different countries while experiencing a new culture, engaging in research or internships, and earning UC credit.

A vibrant Art + Design scene with world-class museums, performances, and programs in dance, music, theater, creative writing, and visual arts.

“The sheer intellectual breadth here is amazing. There are so many options for internal exploration and self discovery at Berkeley.”

Lisa Garcia Bedolla '93, Professor of Education, Vice Provost for Graduate Studies & Dean of the Graduate Division

LIVE RIGHT IN THE HEART OF IT ALL

Living on campus means having a community of friends and an array of enrichment services right at your door. Create memories that will never fade: movie night with your floormates, study sessions in the on-site academic study center, hallway chats with your faculty in residence, cultural celebrations, and more.

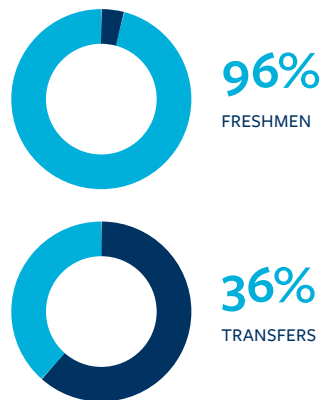

FIND YOUR COMMUNITY & DISCOVER YOUR PASSIONS

Walk through Sproul Plaza at lunchtime and you'll be struck by the energy in the air and the many ways to get involved. Berkeley students are involved, engaged, and politically aware. They're driven to join, lead, and speak out.

Find your community: From the AFX urban dance group, to Virtual Reality at Berkeley, to the Latinx Pre-Law Society - you're sure to find a community where you belong.

Join our history of activism: Berkeley is the birthplace of the Free Speech Movement. Whether leading a demonstration or working within the ASUC, one of the nation's largest, most autonomous student government organizations, today's students continue that tradition.

Incoming students living on campus*

Reflects housing statistics prior to 2020-21 school year. In Fall 2020, only about 2000 students are on campus due to COVID-19 shutdown.*

Find student enrichment resources:

The Multicultural Community Center, the Transfer Student Center, the Undocumented Students Program, the Gender Equity Resource Center, and the Cal Veteran Services Center are just a few examples.

Enjoy endless sports and recreation:

Go hiking with breathtaking views. Join an intramural sports team. Work out in one of three state-of-the-art recreation centers. Swim in four pools. Try kayaking, sailing, or stand-up paddleboarding — Berkeley has everything under the California sun.

“Support is where we shine. We have so many ways for transfer students to find a sense of belonging and to learn about campus life and their major.”

Steven Nguyen Program Director,
Transfer Student Center

The first of its kind in the UC system, the Transfer Student Center offers mentorship, advising, community events, and even a special one-semester class to help incoming transfer students quickly integrate into campus life.

DISCOVER LIFE AT BERKELEY

The city of Berkeley, just 12 miles from San Francisco, has long been a melting pot of cultures and ideas. With a population of 121,000, it's an urban, walkable environment with a rich variety of shopping and restaurants, and three weekly farmers' markets. Hop on a train and in 23 minutes you'll be in San Francisco, home to world-class museums, restaurants, music, and epic sights from Alcatraz to Chinatown to the Golden Gate Bridge.

“You can find your community at Berkeley.
This place is so diverse.
I’ve never been somewhere with such a vibrant, dynamic LGBTQ+ community.”

Teddy L., Encino, CA, MAJOR: Political Science

Discovery: Directed a musical with BareStage, the campus’ oldest student-run theater company, acted in plays and musicals, and served as a senator in student government.

STUDENT DISCOVERIES

“I chose Berkeley because I saw opportunity and potential for growth here that I didn’t see at other campuses.”

Amir W., Los Angeles, CA,
MAJOR: Political Science

Discovery: Studied abroad in London, conducted research with a political science professor, held internships in state and federal government, and served as a senator in student government.

“Transferring to UC Berkeley has given me the opportunity to take advantage of all the opportunities on campus and learn about the most fascinating things from such a diverse population of students. Through extensive networking, I have had several internships from the time I stepped foot on campus.”

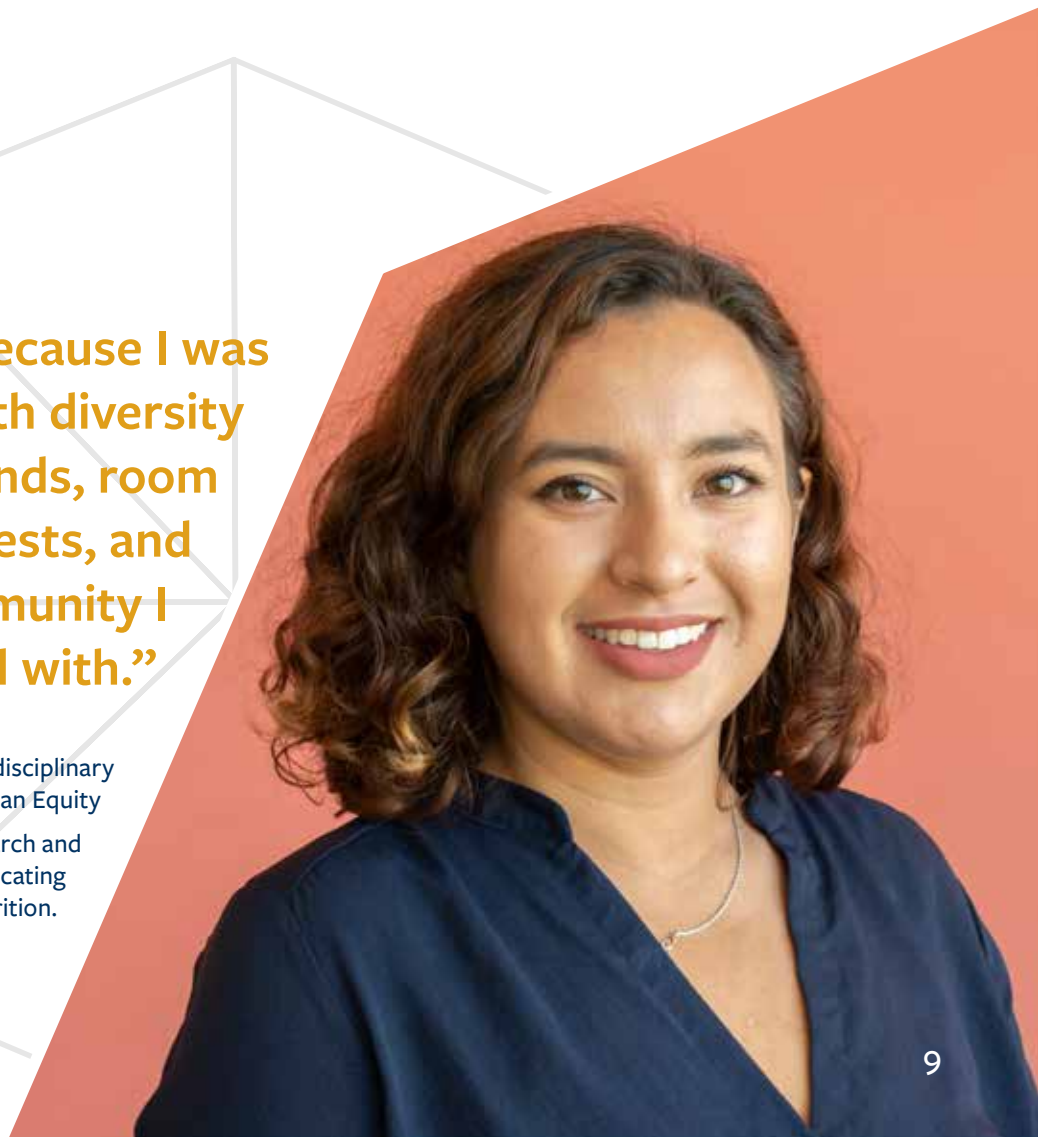

Ismail A., San Rafael, CA, MAJOR: Interdisciplinary Studies with focus in Business & Engineering

Discovery: Interned for Microsoft. Landed internship offers from Autodesk, Intel AI, Adobe, and other companies.

“I chose Berkeley because I was looking for a place with diversity in students’ backgrounds, room to explore my interests, and space to find a community I really resonated with.”

Aura B., Oakland, CA, MAJOR: Interdisciplinary Studies with focus in Technology, Design, & Urban Equity

Discovery: Conducted user research and built a prototype for an app educating children about nutrition.

DISCOVER THE DIFFERENCE YOU CAN MAKE

Make a mark in your community, at Berkeley, and beyond through entrepreneurship, public service, activism, and leading by example. Our graduates are valued by communities and employers for their hard work and determination to make a difference.

Freshman Applicants

At Berkeley, we want to see the whole you. That's why Berkeley freshman applicants are evaluated through a holistic review of academic performance as well as activities and personal factors such as leadership ability, concern for others, and originality. We look at all achievements — both academic and personal — in the context of your educational circumstances, with an emphasis on how you responded to the opportunities or challenges you have faced.

For more information on the freshman admission process at Berkeley, visit:

admissions.berkeley.edu/freshmen

Transfer Applicants

Transfer students make up one-fifth of Berkeley's undergraduate student body, and bring valuable life experiences and diverse perspectives to the campus. Priority is given to California community college students.

A COMPREHENSIVE REVIEW PROCESS

To make sure that we see the whole you in your application, we use a comprehensive review process in which academic and personal achievements are considered, but more emphasis is put on academic preparedness for the major.

By the end of the spring term prior to fall admission you will need to:

- > Complete 60 transferable semester units
- > Complete courses for the major
- > Complete general education requirements

For more information on the transfer admission process, please visit:
